

"ALWAYS HERE"

RESISTANCE + SUPPORT + ART

FOR OUR MARGINALIZED NEIGHBORS

Higher Art Gallery welcomes visual Artists in all mediums who feel the call to practice resistance in the form of making Art to submit one piece for consideration.

What is "Always Here" about?

"Always Here" is an exhibit and means to allow free expression, show & raise support for those facing increasing marginalization & whose very human rights are in jeopardy.

We seek to create an exhibit which brings a sense of hope, joy, curiosity & empowerment to those who wish to be open to it. We seek Art which celebrates GLBTQ folks, people who are being targeted for their "otherness" from those who wish them harm or erasure.

What this show is NOT: we are not into drawing attention or naming the person (s) responsible for many of the current changes in legislation. The face, name or likeness of this person will not make any appearances in this exhibit, as we would rather focus on not losing a sense of hope, working together through these challenging times, and honoring the differences we all share. Instead, this is a time for up-lifting and putting forth the idea that no matter what is done or how hard they try to push us down and erase us, we are not going anywhere. ALWAYS HERE

GLBTQ folks have always been and always will be here.
